The world's most ADVENTUROUS investigative reporter!

Sexy and determined Paula “Peril” Perillo is not afraid to take on the most dangerous stories, confronting brutal mobsters and supernatural villains in pursuit of a front-page scoop! With the help of her photographer partner at the Daily Gazette, Jimmy Smith, she’ll stop at nothing to uncover the truth and defeat the forces of evil in Big City.

Following the release of the feature short film Midnight Whistle in 2012, Paula Peril comics transitioned to color and began building stories based on characters introduced in the new film series. This compilation reprints the Adventures of Paula Peril Issues 7-9, and includes selected stories from the second Anthology, published here for the first time in FULL COLOR!
